MAURY STRAUSS DISTINGUISHED PUBLIC LECTURE
Presented by the Fralin Biomedical Research Institute at VTC

In Person Lecture: Cancer Control in the 21st Century With Special Attention to Disparities in Health

Health disparities persist in our country and we see major differences in health outcomes based on socioeconomic status, race, and ethnicity. Dr. Brawley will discuss trends in cancer death rate over the past three decades, define race and population categorization that will show the scientific aspect of these 21st century disparities, and approaches to cancer control that will focus on prevention, screening, and treatment.
